

I would like to encourage the FCC to keep the telephone privacy act the way it is and not to weaken the current laws for the banking industry . The people of Indiana are very happy with a quiet phone when they come home from work